LARGE CROWD ASSEMBLE AT UNION SMOKER

Standing Room Only For Late-Comers.

BAND APPRECIATED.

Members Of Faculty Contribute To Programme—Refreshments Great Drawing Card.

To say that the Smoker held at the Union last night was a success, is putting it very mildly. Shortly after eight o'clock, the students began to arrive, and soon standing room only was available. The large flooring on the second flat was crowded to its doors, and the latecomers were forced to seek places on the stairs.

The Smoker began by selections by the Orchestra, which were very good indeed. The students showed their appreciation by calling them back for an encore. After this, Dean Lee was called upon to give an address. He spoke of the growth of the Law Faculty from a small registration of previous years to an attendance of 125 students this year. He also urged the association of the students of the different Faculties, mentioning that it was one of the principal factors in an education. He said that the Societies of McGill were a great addition to the University.

Following Dean Lee, a violin solo was rendered by Mr. Smith. This selection won an encore which was given.

The Rooters then had several of their songs led by Archie Jenks, with the assistance of Keith Hutchison, and Sisk Murphy. The introduction of several new songs proved to be a great success, and the concert was the longest item on the programme, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Prof. Caldwell then got up with the intention of singing, but before he began his vocal efforts, he gave a short talk which caused a lot of mirth among the students. His song, entitled "The Massacre of McPherson" proved to be one of the hits of the evening, and he replied to the loud applause by an encore. He said that the students that were coming to McGill this year seemed to know their bearings more than those of other years and seemed to be more serious. This was due no doubt to the number of returned men in the University.

Dean Moyse gave a very interesting address, welcoming the "FRESH" Freshmen to McGill. He spoke of the great number in attendance at the Smoker, which was a record one at any such function. Dean Moyse emphasized the need for McGill to have her own atmosphere and own way of doing things, showing at the same

THE PROPOSED RUSH

To the Students of McGill:

I have been informed that at a meeting of the Committee on Morals and Discipline, the requests for a Rush from Arts and Science, which had been forwarded by the Students' Council, had been dealt with and a decision reached which placed the responsibility of holding the Rush on the Council.

In order fully to discuss the situation and plans which have been proposed, it has been decided to hold a meeting of the presidents of the Freshman and Sophomores in Arts, Science, Medicine and Commerce with Dr. Lamb, the Director of the Department of Physical Education, and myself at the Union, 2 p.m. to-day, October 22nd. These officials are asked to be present without fail at this meeting.

This will necessitate the postponement of the Arts Rush, which was to be held to-day and the proposal for which was not approved by the Committee on Moral and Discipline.

In conclusion, I ask the members of the First and Second years to take no steps in the meantime which may result in the absolute ban of the Rush, and assure them that the decision reached at the meeting to-night will be acted upon as soon as possible, if found feasible.

W. C. NICHOLSON, Pres. Students.

A BETTER UNDERSTANDING

Elsewhere in the issue of to-day's paper appears a letter from the President of the Students' Council relative to the much discussed question of a Freshman-Sophomore Rush.

We are not in full cognizance of the particular points which were involved in the proposals advanced by Arts and Science and therefore are in no position to criticize the attitude adopted by the authorities in refusing to grant them their sanction. Suffice it to say that we have every confidence in the judgment and sense of fair play of the Committee on Morals and Discipline, and believe that they will consider the present situation from all angles and with a sincere desire to arrive at some understanding which will serve as a reliable and satisfactory precedent by which we may be guided in the future.

Further, we are of the opinion that at last the proper methods of arriving at such a satisfactory agreement are being adopted, and that if they are consistently pursued they will result in a real and permanent settlement of the problem. Many were disposed to regard the rather uncompromising attitude of the University authorities in passing the resolution forbidding, almost without qualification, the Rush, as it was popularly known and understood, as arbitrary and in absolute disregard of students' rights. We will not discuss the justification for this view, but will say that whatever may have been the spirit behind the more or less drastic regulation of last year the authorities are in the present situation displaying an earnest desire to arrive at a satisfactory settlement of the difficulty. Further, they have evidence and are evidencing a real willingness to compromise.

It should now be understood by the student body that the authorities are not absolutely and unqualifiedly opposed to anything in the nature of a Rush. As a matter of fact, quite the contrary is the case. As things now stand the question at issue is, not whether a Rush will be tolerated, but rather how such an event may be directed and conducted in order to guard against a violation of the essential principles involved in the prohibitory ruling of the Corporation.

With a disposition on the part of both bodies concerned to arrive at a reasonable and practical solution of the problem we have every reason to believe that shortly the question of an annual Rush will be permanently settled.

UNION HOUSE SMOKER

Congratulations are due to the Union House Committee for the success achieved last night at the first smoker of the year. In past years no other college function has done more to develop that undefinable something we call college sport, than the smokers held in the Union.

All faculties were well represented, and the freshmen especially are to be congratulated on their large representation.

A pleasing innovation was the introduction into the programme of the Routers' songs and yells, and these helped in no small degree to ensure the success of the evening.

MINNESOTA HAS R. O. T. C.

Work and social activities of the R. O. T. C. for the coming year will be outlined at a meeting of the army officers stationed here and the student cadet officers in the office of the commandant at the armoury to-morrow at 12:30 noon.

It is the plan of Colonel A. G. Goodwyn, commanding officer, to make the meeting a get-together affair, which will bring the men of the regular army who are directing the military work at Minnesota, into close contact with the young men who are to be in charge of the R. O. T. C. units here. A close understanding between the student instructors and the men of the corps means better work throughout, in the opinion of Colonel Goodwyn.

Military work alone is not to be the sole purpose of the R. O. T. C. if the plans of Colonel Goodwyn work out. Social work, an athletic programme of sports and field days, co-operating with the school athletic instructors and other meets which will promote a feeling of unity of spirit and close-fellowship is the object of this year's work.

"My aim for the coming year," said Colonel Goodwyn, "is to bring about such a spirit among the men in the cadet corps that they will take pride and interest in their organization and do all in their power to make it worthy of the ideals for which the men of Minnesota stand."

FOOTBALL RIVALRY DISPLAYED IN LAW

Inter-Faculty Game Between Freshmen and Combined Upperclass Men Proposed.

Never before in the history of the Faculty of Law has such intense interest been displayed in the activities of the Gridiron as this year. It appears that there are numerous would-be stars in the first year, possessed of a keen desire to show what they can do in football, but owing to the fact that the lecture hours of the Jurists prevent them from turning out at the regular practices, it has been decided to stage an inter-faculty game between the freshmen and the combined second and third years, the losing team to give a dinner to the winners.

Final arrangements have not yet been completed, but Hilary Robertson, the well known scrimmage artist, is working tooth and nail towards this end.

It is rumored that the freshmen are holding daily signal practices behind locked doors, but they will not, catch the seniors napping in this connection, the latter being confident that they can trim the freshmen to a frazzle.

COLUMBIA CLASSIFIES FRESHMEN.

Freshman Activity Buttons are soon to appear on the lapels of all active '23 men of Columbia University. The Student Board method will hereafter be used to distinguish the Freshmen with college spirit from their inactive classmates.

A member of the Student Board is to be appointed to take charge of matters connected with this new institution. To him, each active Freshman must submit a certificate from the head of the activity he has selected, before he can obtain his button. The buttons are to be awarded for both athletic and non-athletic activities. A freshman may permanently retain his button only if at the end of the season he is retained by the sport, publication, or society he went out for. The design and material of the buttons have not yet been announced. They will be distributed as soon as they can be obtained; no definite date has been set.

Hazing has hitherto been practiced on all Freshmen alike. The new system of lapel buttons will give Sophomores an opportunity to single out the inactive yearlings and to concentrate their efforts in attempts to instill in them some smatterings of college spirit.

TOM THORPE STRENUOUS COACH

One of the most strenuous workouts of the season took place on South Field yesterday afternoon when Tom Thorpe arrived to coach the line-men. The big coach drove the men, thru a long scrimmage session in which he stressed the fundamentals of line defense and offense. A scrub backfield was used to carry the ball during the afternoon.

Thorpe was a regular slavedriver in his coaching and kept the men on the jump every minute. One of the chief faults of the players was the tendency to watch the backfield men carrying the ball instead of bending low and charging. Special attention was given to the Varsity line-men who are expected to show a great improvement over the form they displayed in the Vermont game before they tackle Williams on Saturday.

After practice three Varsity eleven ran thru signal drill for a while. Applebaum, Moszczanski, Thornton and Johnson made up the Varsity backfield. Many of the veterans of the team, including Shaw, Canapary, Quigley, and Tower took a day off, having not yet recovered from the effects of the Vermont game.

CHINAMAN PREFERS COMFORT TO BOLD

Once more the East and the West have met, and the gulf of the oriental has been overcome by the sound philosophy of Greek oratory.

The Asiatic cook of a wellknown Greek hash club, lured by the thought of great riches in the frozen north was preparing to fold his tent like an Arab and quietly steal away to Lassen County, to prepare the toothsome beef stew for the hairy-eared miners. Not that this in itself was of prime importance, but when one notes the fact that the oriental in question is the leader of a tong, and tongs are inseparable units, the situation becomes grave. If one cook left, eleven others would be sure to follow, as a tong is a sacred thing, and not lightly to be cast aside.

The house-manager of the Greeks, however, proved himself to be master burning words, he pictured to the Asiatic the perils of snow and ice, of active volcanoes and blue devils, and the apostle of Confucius was convinced. Peace has settled over the troubled kitchens once more, and the Chinese question is apparently answered for the present.

McGILL TAKES PART IN THE VICTORY LOAN

Faculty Reps. Will Conduct Campaign.

RIVALRY EXPECTED.

All Students and Members Of the Staff Will Be Canvassed.

Elaborate plans are now being made in order to make, what perhaps may be Canada's last Victory Loan a huge success. The general campaign will be run on similar lines to those previous. Captains for the teams have been appointed and are now engaged in making up the personnel of their respective teams.

In this campaign, McGill intends to take her part and do her full share. The Students Council have plans well under way and in a day or two will commence a publicity campaign through the "Daily".

Following this campaign, the student canvassers, during the week beginning Oct. 27th, will canvass every member of the staff of the different faculties as well as each student of the University.

To undertake this task, each faculty will have a team with the representative of that faculty to the Students Council acting as Captain. The Captain will appoint a member or members from each class to complete the personnel of his team.

On the whole, they ought to be a keen rivaling between the faculties. The aim of each team being to raise a higher "per capita" amount than in any other faculty.

Now is the time for McGill to show that she is more than ever to the forefront. Now is the time to show everyone that McGill can put her shoulders to a task at home just as she did abroad during the war. Let's get a little pep into this campaign. Let's have keen rivalry between the teams—above all, let's not forget our duty.

Watch for further announcements, and get ready for the canvassers and keep to carry McGill "over the top".

SMALL BLOCK M'S AWARDED

At a meeting of the Athletic Association held yesterday evening, small block M's were awarded to those men who succeeded in winning five or more points at the University Track and Field Meet held last Friday. The following men will receive small block M's:

W. R. Kennedy, Arts '22.
W. S. Antliff, Commerce '20
R. L. Hamilton, Medicine '23
J. D. King, Science '22
C. Hay, Medicine '23.
A. L. Gnaedinger, Science '22.
D. B. Foss, Science '23 qualified by winning five points at the meet, but, being a freshman, he is not entitled to receive an M.

HARVARD MEN INJURED.

Forrest Phinney, Harvard star end, wrenched his back so severely in a scrimmage yesterday that he may be out of the game for several weeks. Gaston worked in his place. Moss Hadley, overseas veteran, tackle who was gassed in action, has been declared unfit for athletics.

WHY DO THEY CALL IT PIN MONEY?

This expression originally came from the allowance which a husband gave his wife to purchase pins. At one time pins were dreadfully expensive, so that only wealthy people could afford them, and they were saved so carefully that in those days you could not have looked along the pavement and found a pin which you happened to be in need of as you can and often do to-day.

By a curious law the manufacturers of pins were only allowed to sell them on January 1st and 2nd each year, and so when those days came around the women whose husbands could afford it, secured pin money from them and went out and got their pins.

Pins have become so very cheap in these days that we are rather careless with them, but the expression has continued to live although to-day when used, it means any allowance of money which a husband gives a wife for her personal expenses.

Pins were known and used as long ago as 1347 A.D. They were introduced into England in 1540. In 1824 an American named Micht invented a machine for making pins which enabled them to be manufactured cheaply. About 1,500 tons of iron and brass are made into pins every year in the United States.

—From the Book of Wonders. Published in Canada by Thomas Allen, Toronto.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD HERE

Queen's Courts Unserviceable From Rain—Tournament Coming To McGill Courts.

Last night our tennis team left McGill's fair precincts for the darksome regions of Queen's University. They were expecting to compete in the Intercollegiate Tennis meet, which was scheduled to take place on the Queen's courts, commencing yesterday. However, when the team reached the ground, the heavens voiced their protest that such an important event should be held on other courts than those of our beloved Alma Mater, McGill University. Accordingly, the clouds opened and deluged the courts of our less illustrious rival to such an extent that the contestants decided that the tournament could not be held on such courts.

After due consideration it was decided to hold the tournament on our own courts, by reason of this decision we shall see to-day men wearing the colours of rival colleges thronging our campus and honoring our college with their presence while we wish our visitors the best of success, nevertheless, we hope our own team will be victors in the coming contest.

PASSING OF THE ELEPHANT

The last elephant in Zululand was recently killed. The elephants of Southern Rhodesia have been exterminated. In the Eastern Transvaal, near Portuguese territory, a few survivors of a small troop occasionally are seen, but they are being attacked from both sides, and are on the verge of extinction. It is possible that there may be a few left in the Kynsna Forest, Cape Colony, but the game warden is doubtful. And now a special correspondent of the London Times writes that the 'Provincial Council of the Cape of Good Hope has passed a decree authorizing the destruction of the herd of elephants in the Addo Bush Forest Reserve. Says a writer in Science.

"The Addo Bush, near Fort Elizabeth, until recently was a waterless scrub of little value, in its centre an area of approximately 6,000 acres has long been a reserve for the elephants. The land is not fenced off, and farms, at first of small value, but now being developed by irrigation works from Sunday's River, surround it. The herd numbers between 100 and 200 individuals, the only surviving examples of a distinct variety, characterized by a strongly arched forehead, enormous ears, roughly square outline, short forelegs and a very hairy body. The proposed action is not a case of wanton destruction. The Provincial Council has given long consideration to the matter, and has passed the decree only after careful investigation by a special committee whose members were fully alive to the zoological calamity that their recommendations involved. The elephants bally out of the reserve inquest of food and water. They break down fences, stampede cattle, destroy crops and frighten human beings. They assume that the irrigation canals are intended for their benefit, and in taking their baths they destroy the banks and dams. The committee reported that the elephants could be confined only by the erection of a fence thirteen miles in length, and a structure sufficiently strong to contain elephants would have cost at least $100,000. It would have been necessary to provide a water supply, and it is more than doubtful if the area inclosed would have provided natural food in sufficient quantities."

AMERICAN WALKER

Seattle, October 21.—An American explorer, Harold Noice, formerly a member of Vilhelmsur Stefansson's party, is working his way eastward on foot along the route of the Northwest Passage on the northern rim of the continent, according to word received here. He expects to reach the Hudson Bay country and civilization some time next summer.

Storker Storkson, formerly second in command of the Stefansson party, who arrived here recently from the Far North, said that Noice, accompanied only by Eskimos, is proceeding slowly and mapping portions of the coast line of Victoria Land, heretofore unexplored, is being charted by Noice.

Noice may visit the Interior of Victoria Land, which, according to all reports, has never been explored by white men. All explorers, traders and trappers who have touched Victoria Land have only journeyed along its shores. Stefansson found the tribe of "blond Eskimos" in the Victoria Land country.

Noice has no ship and but few supplies. He depends almost entirely upon his gun for his living. Stefansson, his former chief, who is noted among explorers as being able to live off the barren white lands of the north, probably taught Noice how to get about without carrying many supplies.

Noice's parents live in Seattle. The explorer is young in years, having graduated from a high school here about eight years ago. He went North in 1912 with Captain Louis Lane on the schooner Polar Bear.

Correspondence

The Daily is not responsible for the sentiments of letters published in the correspondence columns. Signed communications from graduates, undergraduates and members of the faculties will be placed in print if they are not of too great length.

Correspondents are requested to observe the unwritten law of the newspaper office — that they write upon ONE side of the paper ONLY.

No communication will be admitted in this column without the name of the writer being attached, not necessarily for PUBLICATION.

The Editor McGill Daily.

Dear Sir:

A young furor was created in the University recently, and in the R.V.C. particularly, by a suggestion on the part of one or more members of the entertainment committee that a Masquerade ball be held in the near future to add a little color to the present university life. However, later correspondents using your valued columns, have masqueraded in said columns under various joyous nom-deplumes. As a result of this, most undergrads are in ignorance of the identities of those who, to judge from their fervent pleadings in the Daily, are most in favor of such a Ball.

I would suggest that a meeting of all interested in a masquerade ball be held in the near future, and representatives appointed to plead their cause with the entertainment committee.

Your faithfully,
JULIET.

The Editor of the Daily.

In yesterday's Daily I saw a letter in these columns signed Romeo, and his sentiments were that Halloween should not pass by unobserved by Mc-Gill students, and that some sort of social gathering should be arranged for that evening.

I have much pleasure in saying that I agree with him, and could not but the masquerade ball suggested by Messrs.
O'Brien and Mills come off on that night?

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space,
I am,

Sincerely yours,
JULIET.

Oct. 21, 1919.

To the Editor McGill Daily.

Dear Sir:

Your issue of to-day contained an article that should appeal to men from the Maritime Provinces.

The writer feels sure that he is voicing the opinion of the majority of Eastern men in that the so-called "Club" would serve as a medium for sports, unity and "fraternization."

Sincerely,
"MARITIME."

RUGBY TEAM WORK HARD AT STADIUM

Strenuous Try-Out In Rain
Yesterday—New Plays
Being Practical.

Daily practices are being held by the rugby team at the Stadium yesterday in spite of the rain the team were put through a strenuous drill. Time and again the men were sent around in the rain and this hard grind in such unfavorable weather will have its effect in bringing the team into condition.

Coach Shaughnessy is sparing no effort to get the team into perfect condition for the next game in the Intercollegiate series which will be with Toronto at Toronto.

All the men are working hard and many new tricks are being practised.
The game with Toronto should give an indication as to the probable champion and so every man is out to do his best to make McGill Intercollegiate Rugby Champions for 19-20.

ENGLISH RUGBY TO BE RESUMED AT MCGILL

Those Interested In the Game Turn Out and Make It a Success.

At a well attended meeting held in the Hall last night the English Rugby enthusiasts of the University talked over plans for re-establishing the club at McGill where, at one time, it had a prominent place amongst athletic activities.

A temporary executive was elected, whose duties it will be to take up the matter with the authorities, and as soon as possible bring the club back to its own. On this executive are:
M. McNamee (Sci.), Chairman; R. S.
O'Meara (Com. '21), secretary; Twin-horow (Representative from Science), Borden (from Arts), and E. J. Curtis
(from Medicine).

Further particulars will appear in the "Daily" shortly. Meantime the Presidents of the various years are urged to give their support by bringing to the attention of classes the fact that this club is coming to new life, and to enlist their interest. For it needs the interest and enthusiastic support of every man in the University who has played or wants to play English Rugby.

giate meet, have reported with the present wrestling squad at the university. Coach W. C. O'Connell of this department is still calling for candidates for this branch of sport, although a number of other wrestlers who were with Cornell in former years are taking daily practice.

The number of men who have joined the wrestling squad at Cornell thus far is approximately 100.

McGill: Not Chosen

Professor Porter then spoke a few words previous to supper, pointing out the bright future in store for McGill now that the war was over. He said that we could better take advantage of the opportunities afforded us, by which we could better ourselves in more than one way.

The supper then followed this address and ended the entertainment which we hope will not be the last of its kind.
It was thoroughly enjoyed by all the able to be there. Is a great drawing card in the social side of our college life.

Previous to the Smoker, a band-practice was held. It was the first this season, and proved to be a success.
More instruments still are needed and it is hoped by those in charge that they will be able to obtain the same very soon in order to get on with the rest of the practices.

Following Dean Moyle Mr. Mooenjoyable evening is assured. A hearty invitation is extended to all present and intending members to attend.

drawings to the persons who had started them, two of the recipients being Dean Moyle and Prof. Caldwell.

The next item was an orchestral selection, followed by "ALOUETTE" started by Dean Moyle, the students joining in the chorus. He was vigou-rously applauded and was repeated to the joy of all.

MED. REP. UNION HOUSE COMMITTEE

The results of the elections for representatives from Medicine for Union House Committee are as follows: Of the four candidates Holling, McClure, Murray, Soumervilles the successful men are Holling and McClure.

ORCHESTRA AT TEXAS UNIVERSITY.

The first rehearsal of the University Orchestra was held last night and was attended by more than 20 student musicians.

Professor Reed has charge of the organization and stated at this meeting that within his experience of several years with this class of work in the University he had never seen such good material selected from the student body for an orchestra. The orchestra will be composed of at least 40 members, all from the University, several of whom are exceptionally fine musicians.

The meetings will be held on each Tuesday night at 7.15 and every one desirous of becoming a member must attend the first meeting for the organization will soon be completed.

THE CAFETERIA.

The Union Cafeteria has been opened for the convenience of the students. As an inducement to them a special lunch is being served each day at noon for 45 cents. Students will find it to their advantage to patronize their own cafeteria instead of going down town, and not only paying more, but having to endure the noon hour rush.

CANADIAN ART AT QUEENS.

Students at Queen's have this week the unique opportunity of seeing an exhibit of paintings of Canadian landscapes by Canadian artists. Mr. C. W. Jefferys, A.R.C.A., and Dr. Barker Fairley, of the University of Toronto, have selected the pictures and the exhibit has been brought here through the initiative of one or two of the professors. It is said to be the finest collection of Canadian paintings ever gathered together in Canada.

These paintings are purely Canadian and indicative of the spirit of a new school. They are all lent by the artists who have painted them, except two by Tom Thomson, which are the property of Dr. McCallum, of Toronto. Mr. Thomson's death by drowning two years ago, at 40 years of age, removed a remarkable figure from the ranks of Canadian artists.

POLO SEASON STARTS WITH GOOD RESULTS

Both Teams Had Easy Wins Over Nationals.

EXHIBITION GAMES.

Prospects For Polo Season Seem Very Bright—Both Strong Teams.

In the first water polo fixtures of the season, McGill vanquished her opponent by an impassable margin. The college teams trimmed the Nationals in both the senior and intermediate games: the former won by a score of 13 to 2, and the latter by a similar runaway, 11 to 1. In all probability, the scores could have been kept down to the whitewash margin, but towards the close of the games, the men seemed to tire of the monotony of scoring, and consequently, eased up somewhat.

The intermediate game started off with a rush. Laidley got the ball on the toss and went through for the first point of the evening. Barely a minute later, Bastable swam up and shot the second goal. Nationals here exerted themselves and the play drifted to the college end. Miller soon worked it up once more and scored the third goal of the game. Bastable followed him for another point some minutes later, just before the whistle blew for quarter-time. The second quarter started off with mixed play, but Bastable broke away and netted another point. McGill's fifth, Wade went hard and scored and a few minutes later, Miller tossed in on a long pass. Schippl was given an opportunity to get into the game and promptly displayed his old form by adding one more point to the even-increasing total. The whistle here closed the first half, with the score 8 to 0 for the college boys.

The second half was almost a replica of the first, and Laidley opened out as he did in the first quarter, by rushing up and scoring the ninth point. With a nine-point lead, the college men felt privileged to do some loafing, and for the next five minutes the Nationals had it a little more their own way. After a series of somewhat ragged plays, Lacoursiere broke away and netted the Nationals sole point for the game. This made the college team hold them down more, and the next few minutes of successful rushes made the Blue-and-White realize that their period of opportunity was over for the game. They were held right down till the last second of the game, and meanwhile, Miller helped to make the score greater by netting a nicely-placed shot. The final point of the game was made by Wade and the total of the evening read 13-2 for the University.

Bastable and Miller were the most outstanding men on the college squad; the former was right on the job all the game, and was always there to be relied on. The latter was a hard worker and many tallies to his credit. The whole team showed up to advantage, and could have done much more had they been pushed harder.

The Senior game was very much the same as the other, although it did not lag quite as much. Parsons started the game with a rush and made the first tally ten seconds after the toss-off. He repeated his performance a minute later and netted the second point for the team. The next tally was the result of some clever passing up to the National net where Elder drove it in for the third. Wiggs was credited with the next point and managed to beat the quarter-time whistle to the nets. Elder opened up the second quarter scoring by a goal made some two minutes after the quarter started. Thereafter, the men took it easier and contented themselves with retaining their five-point lead.

The second half saw Fiske come back to old style for three consecutive goals, the latter of which was the nearest shot of the game, a long pass made by Parsons from the middle of the tank. Parsons followed this up with a heavy one to the man in the nets which he could not possibly stop. Bastable made the eleventh point and Miller followed up for the twelfth. Elder got a old stride once more and netted the thirteenth. Thirteen proved to be the Jinx number for the college men, who took it easy as they could well afford to win a thirteen-point lead. Parsons decided he deserved a rest, so urged Curly Walters to have a try on the forward-line.

The Nationals took advantage of the relaxation on the part of their opponents, and started to besiege Parsons from all sides: he stopped several of the shots, but one of the men slipped one in on him finally—their first point of the game. McGill kept them down for the next few minutes, but eventually took another slumber during which another point was slipped in on Parsons. That was all the blood the College men would allow them to draw, and the remainder of the game was entirely in the hands of our Seniors. The final score read 13-2. Fiske, Parsons and Elder were the ones who shone particularly for the college; they worked hard and played well together throughout. The team as a whole also

MODERN ART

The artist dips his brush in a bucket of paint and wiped it across the canvas several times horizontally. When he had done this he took his labor in hand and carefully placed it in an elaborate frame.
"What's the idea?" his boon companion inquired.
"Impressionistic study."
"Do you mean to tell me that is a finishing painting?"
"Certainly."
"What are you going to call it?"
"A village street as seen from the rear seat of a motor-cycle."—London Answers.

DEBATING AGAIN POPULAR.

For the first time since the fall of 1917 Stanford and California will again meet in an inter-collegiate debate. This debate, brought about by an agreement with Stanford, which was ratified by the executive committee at its last meeting, will be held at 8 o'clock in Wheeler Auditorium, on November 21.

Although the judges for the contest have not as yet been selected, the question to be debated has been determined upon. California will uphold the negative side of the issue; resolved, that Congress should adopt the Plumb Plan for control of the railroads.

All regular undergraduate students are eligible for places on the team, tryouts for which will be held on October 29. The same question, the Plumb Plan, will be the subject of the tryout debates.

PROFESSORS URGE ACCEPTANCE OF TREATY.

Two telegrams have been sent to Senators Colt and Gerry by two groups of members of the Brown University faculty. Both messages urged the Senate to hasten preparations in signing the treaty. One, however, signed by forty-seven members urged acceptance without reservation, while the other message urged reservations if the majority of the Senate approve of them.

showed up well, but like the Intermediates, took advantage of their opponents' inferiority to take it fairly easy for themselves.

The Nationals have some good material, but it appears to be very young and not very well experienced in big-league playing. Lacoursiere is their best bet, and he is a good defence man, his main asset being his weight and long throw.

Goal: Walters

INTERMEDIATES

DUE SUPPORT FOR THE 'LIT' THIS SEASON

Officers Elected For Ensuing Year.

CHANCE FOR FRESHIES

The Canadian Club, a Popular Organization, Filling a Unique Position.

The reorganizing meeting of the Literary and Debating Society and Canadian Club was held in the Arts Building yesterday afternoon. Mr. Adair, last year's president, opened the meeting. After a brief explanation for the benefit of new men, as to the nature and efforts of the club, he called for the election of officers. The following men were then chosen for the various posts:

President—Farthing.
Vice-President—Duncan Anderson.
Secretary—F. Peterson.
Treasurer—G. W. Webster.

This society supplied a great need in our college life. It not only serves as a means of giving men a training in self expression and analytical discussion, but also through the Canadian Club, brings before the students to address them, men who are outstanding in the world's trade, finance and statesmanship, as well as men of letters. Last year, for instance, the Canadian Club was addressed by Gen. Pau and the French Mission, and Captain Carpenter, the hero of the Zeebrugge raid.

Such ventures on the part of those in charge of the club can only be undertaken, with the wholehearted support of the student body. The best way for us to show that we are behind them in their efforts, is by turning out at the debates and other meetings of the club.

If we can revive a keen enthusiasm for the welfare of the "Lit," we will be going a long way towards reviving the old college spirit of pre-war days. For at that time, the "Lit" was a big thing to everyone, and those in charge contrasting those rosy days with the trying times of the war, can only hope for the best. Let us relieve any apprehension that they may have, by showing them at the outset that we are "with them."

Dean Lea, speaking at last night's smoker at the Union, advised all college men to make their course an all round one, strongly advocating that they join such a society as a literary and debating society. There is a piece of advice from a man who knows.

Joining in our case, however, means showing interest for all undergraduates are automatically members of the literary and debating society and the Canadian Club.

RECORD YEAR AT CORNELL

From figures compiled by the Cornell Daily Sun, a banner year in the history of Cornell College is expected as the total enrollment of Freshmen and old students numbers 4,977. Though there are no figures showing the division of the classes, the Sun estimates that the total number of Freshmen, men and women is 1,800. As registrants are still streaming in steadily, it is expected that the final compilation will bring the mark far above five thousand.

THE BATTLE OF CHATEAUGUAY.

On the 26th of October, 1812 in the war between the United States and the British in Canada one of the most brilliant victories won by the British was at Chateauguay, Que. On the 22nd of September General Hampton, in command on Lake Champlain had entered Canada at Odelltown with over 5,000 men. Finding that he was opposed by the outposts of De Salaberry, the famous British fighter, he retraced his steps and made a fresh advance from his point of invasion by the roads leading to Chateauguay. De Salaberry with a small force of 800 Canadian Fencibles and Voltigeurs advanced again to meet him at Chateauguay fortifying the ground he chose with a blockhouse and an abatis. Here he was unexpectedly reinforced by the gallant McDonnell, who had won great fame at Ogdensburg. He had been rushed from Kingston to aid in the defence and had made almost a record rapid march to help his fellow commander. On the 26th of the month two forces of Americans, numbering in all over 7,000 men, advanced to crush De Salaberry, being ignorant of the arrival of the fresh troops. While one column met and dispersed a small number of Beauharnois militia, the second struck the Voltigeurs, who were driven back upon the second line in most places. But De Salaberry with a drummer boy sounded the advance in face of the enemy. McDonnell was ready, however, and by arranging his buglers at many separated points in the woods and each sounding the advance he tricked the enemy into thinking that a great army lay in waiting to smash the Americans. This fear was increased by the war yells of a handful of Indians in the defence troop. The Americans broke and fled and when the column that had dispersed the Beauharnois militia moved forward it was met by a furious artillery fire. The United States officer, too, thought he was engaging a great army and so ordered the retreat. The brilliant victory of the small French-Canadian force ended the invasion of Lower Canada. On Oct. 26, 1895 a monument was erected on the field to commemorate the decisive struggle.
